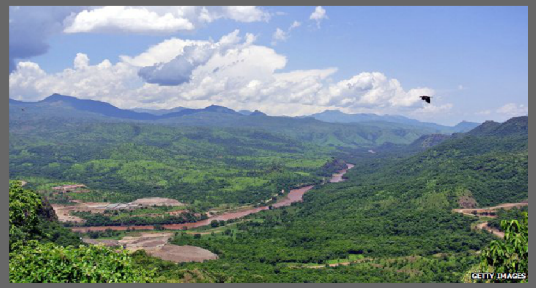
Experience nature at its fullest with the Mago Natioal Park.With this place you can see the animals you dream of when you hear of Africa. This is one of the safest parks ever. With this park it is guaranteed you will never encounter a crocodile. So bathing is perfectly safe and carefree. The parents who visit with their kids say it is a big relief to know that the park is free of crocodiles. In order to make your stay even more enjoyable we really push it

Are you an adventure seeker? If so this is the place for you to visit. it's the Northern Stelae Plain. Go on the adventure of your life searching for the lost tomb beneath the plain. Have you ever heard of Tomb of False Door? This is a tomb filled to the brink with all the tresures and jewels you could possibly imagine. The last thing you can do while here, which the kids love, is see the sarcophagus of a real king. This is really educational and



Welcome to Ethiopia! Your dream awaits here! This is the most amazing place you and your family could ever go on. This place is filled with nature, adventure, and fun. This place has so many wonderful adventures to go on. All of these places are also totally kid appropiate and fun. All the kids who leave say they can't wait to come again. The only bad part of this vacation is the fact you have to leave. So enjoy your Ethiopian vacation, and come

We know the perfect way for you to finish your fun Ethiopian vacation. The perfect way to end is a trip to the Boston Day Spa. This spa is specifically know for its wonderful, soothing, and relaxing massages. This place has everything it has a sauna, steam bath, jacuzzies, waxing services, a hair dresser, and a free foot massage. Everyone who comes here says it's the best experience they've ever had. We hope you decide to come on this trip to Ethiopia.

Do you like listening to different types of music from all over the world? Then the place for you is the Jazzamba Lounge. When you're here listen to Ethiopian jazz and let the music take you over. This place is always boming with excitment and fun! This place features some national artists from all over the world. This place is very locale and easy to get to. This is also a great way to learn about cultures for all ages, and is perfectly safe for kids.

Want to go on the best tour that you and your kids will enjoy? It's the Green Land tours and travel. Go on a poneer tour that's so fun your kids won't realize it's educational. Experience the most fun you have ever had camping in a remote corner of the tour spots. When here you can make a fire and tell spooky ghost stories. or you could roast marshmallows and make smores. This will be time for you and your kids to relax during your fun and